Students located outside of QLD

All exam times are scheduled in Australian Eastern Standard time (AEST). If you are no longer in Queensland, please ensure you take any time differences into account. For example: if your exam is scheduled at 9am (AEST/QLD time) and you are located in Perth WA, you must sit your exam at 7am Perth, WA local time.

Changes to the Final Examination Timetable

Should there be a need to make a change to the scheduled date or time of any examination after release of the final timetable, students will be notified by an email to their student email account.

Alternative Examination Arrangements

Where direct timetable clashes were identified in the scheduling of the exams, alternative arrangements have already been made for you to sit the exam/s at a different time. Therefore, your personal exam timetable may differ to the rest of your classmates.

Note: Alternative arrangements will NOT be made for students with exams in consecutive sessions, or two exams on the same day.
