

2021 Fee schedule

Student contribution amounts for '2021 students' enrolled in Commonwealth supported places

This schedule is for 2021 commencing Commonwealth supported students. You are a '2021 student' if you:

- commenced the program you are currently enrolled in at UQ on or after 1 January 2021, or
- changed program in 2021, or
- are studying a course at UQ on a cross-institutional basis in 2021, and you commenced the related program at your home institution on or after 1 January 2021.

This schedule does not apply to students commencing postgraduate clinical psychology, pathway psychology or pathway social work programs in 2021, as a different student contribution amount applies for certain course disciplines. See the respective '2021 postgraduate clinical psychology students', '2021 pathway psychology students', or '2021 pathway social work students' schedule.

The table below shows the student contribution amount (SCA) payable by a domestic undergraduate or postgraduate student enrolled in a Commonwealth supported place (CSP), for courses in each Student Contribution (SC) Band, for the listed enrolment year.

The SCA payable for a course is determined by the SC Band of the course discipline¹ and the EFTSL² value of the course.

The SCA for each course at UQ is published in the unit of study schedules for Commonwealth supported students (usually by November of the year prior to enrolment).

¹The Australian Government groups different course disciplines into different student contribution 'bands' (SC Bands). See Study Assist for more information.

²EFTSL (equivalent full-time student load) is an Australian government measure of course study load. A full-time student is normally enrolled in 1 EFTSL of study (16 units) for a year. At UQ, each course is given a 'unit' value which reflects the amount of effort required to complete the course. A course 'unit' value has an equivalent course 'EFTSL' value. This is shown in the table.
