

Student contribution amounts for '2021 onwards pathway psychology students' enrolled in a Commonwealth Supported Place

This schedule is for '2021 onwards pathway psychology students' enrolled in a Commonwealth Supported Place.

Note:

1. You are a '2021 onwards pathway psychology student' if you:
  - Commenced in the following program at UQ on or after 1 January 2021:
    - Bachelor of Psychological Science (Hons) (2379)*; or
  - Are studying at UQ on a cross-institutional basis for credit towards the related professional pathway psychology program you commenced on a Commonwealth Support basis on or after 1 January 2021<sup>1</sup> at your home institution.
2. The table below shows the Student Contribution Amount (SCA) payable by a domestic '2021 onwards pathway psychology students' enrolled in a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP), for courses in each subject area for 2023.

The SCA payable for a course is determined by the subject area or discipline (represented by the first 4 characters of the course code)<sup>2</sup> and the EFTSL<sup>3</sup> value of the course.

The SCA in a given year for each course at UQ is published in the unit of study schedules for Commonwealth supported students (usually by November of the previous year).

<sup>1</sup>Cross-institutional study at UQ in a unit of study that contributes to a course of study that leads to a Bachelors degree, Honours degree or Masters degree in psychology with a course structure that makes it compulsory to study the units relevant to professional registration as a psychologist by the Psychology Board of Australia, and which itself represents a pathway to professional registration as a psychologist.

<sup>3</sup>EFTSL (Equivalent Full-Time Student Load) is an Australian government measure of course study load – 1 EFTSL is the standard full-time load for a year. At UQ, 1 EFTSL equates to 16 units and most courses have a unit value of 2, or 0.125 EFTSL.

**Additional programs may be added to this list in response to Government advice.*
