

Indicative domestic tuition fees for undergraduate programs commenced in 2018

An "indicative annual tuition fee" is the average tuition fee cost of enrolling in an undergraduate program at 2018 fee rates, for a domestic student who does not have a Commonwealth supported place. It is calculated based on a standard full-time study load of 16 units in an academic year; more for intensive programs (24 units for the Associate Degree in Business).

Actual fees will vary according to a student's choice of courses and their unit value, and the study load undertaken in the 2018 academic year. Fees may be higher in later years as all fees are reviewed annually.

An "indicative total program tuition fee" is the estimated total tuition fee cost of enrolling in a program for its standard duration. All fees are reviewed annually. The estimated fee assumes a maximum indexation rate of 6% per annum for programs with a duration of more than one year. Fees may be higher if a student takes longer than the standard duration to complete the program.
