1. Purpose and Objectives

This policy details the minimum requirements for the course profile developed for each course offered at The University of Queensland and delivered through the electronic course profile system.

2. Definitions, Terms, Acronyms

No entries for this document.

3. Policy Scope/Coverage

This policy applies to all courses offered at The University of Queensland.
4. Policy Statement

Each course offered at The University of Queensland will have a course profile which provides an overview of the course and includes a description of the course learning objectives, learning activities and assessment items. Course profiles are to be developed and delivered through the electronic course profile system and must be made available to students and other stakeholders in a timely manner. Course profiles provide key information for teaching and curriculum planning and quality assurance and should be kept up to date as courses are revised.
